Dear Member of the European Group of Public Law,

Since 1989, when the European Review of Public Law (ERPL), the backbone of the EPLO Publications and one of the first initiatives of the European Group of Public Law, first appeared, achieving its goals, realizing and taking even further the aims on which the ERPL has been conceived in 1989 – to cover jurisdictions that relate to the European Union, the national public law and practices, as well as to their mutual interaction and influence but also other jurisdictions that interplay with the European Public Law systems and/or offer relevant comparative insights – has been an objective that the ERPL has been consistently pursuing.

The support and contribution of all members of the European Group of Public Law has been continuous and invaluable in achieving the ERPL's goals and expanding them even further, and made it an inseparable and substantial part of the EPLO activities. We wish to thank you all and invite you to continue showing the same interest and support to the ERPL.

In this context, we are hereby addressing – as every year – this letter to you in your capacity as EGPL member, always counting on your interest in the ERPL and on your support so that our Review keeps achieving its aims and honoring its original and continuous commitment to constitute a wide forum of discussion on public law issues.

We therefore invite you to submit articles to the European Review of Public Law and to communicate its activities to your colleagues specializing in the wider area of public law and interested in presenting their work to a multinational audience by submitting an article on a subject falling within the subject-matters dealt with by the ERPL.

In compliance with the Review's commitment to offering a variety of scientific opinions in a multilingual legal context, texts are accepted in seven languages: English, French, Spanish, Russian, Portuguese, German and Italian. We kindly invite those interested in more details about submissions to the ERPL, to visit the EPLO Publications website at www.eplopublications.eu and more in particular <https://eplopublications.eu/page/submissions> and the more specific guidelines under European Review of Public Law ERPL 1. Submissions under this same link.

Submissions - in one of the abovementioned languages - or requests for any further information on the ERPL should be sent by email to submissions@eplopublications.eu, with the title "Submission to the European Review of Public Law" in the Subject line of the email message.

We thank you in advance you for your interest, contribution and support, that will enable the further development of the European Review of Public Law, a common aim of the European Group of Public Law and the EPLO and a commitment we all remain faithful to.

Yours sincerely,

The Editorial Board
